

Resources for Young People on CSEC

1. Child Friendly Definitions of CSEC. ECPAT International

This brochure presents definitions of some of the commonly used terms and concepts on CSEC in a simple, easy to understand language aimed at young people.

2. Protecting Children Online: An ECPAT Guide

This booklet explains how new technologies work and how these can or have been used by those who exploit children. It also examines both old and new means of combating use of technology for exploitation of children.

3. Brochure on: Young People On-Line: A Manual for Safe Guarding their Right to Protection from Exploitation. ECPAT International

This brochure summarizes the main features of the ECPAT Manual.

4. Towards a Better Understanding of Child Participation: An ECPAT International Training Module. 2003

This training module for the ECPAT network was created as part of ECPAT's commitment to promote child and youth participation in the fight against CSEC. This includes detailed session by session guide to help clarify concepts and approaches to young people's participation against CSEC.

5. Child and Youth Participation Resource Guide. UNICEF EAPRO. 2006

An extensive bibliography on resources related to promoting child and youth participation in all aspects from programming to policy advocacy. A useful resource for those who want to learn more about child and youth participation.
